PREFACE

It was in March of 1955 that I took down with a heart attack. While lying here in bed recuperating, I took on arthritis. With all this I soon realized that my days of former activity were over and that I would have to take things slower. So while passing my time in my easy chair and getting so I could get around some, I got an impulse to compile a family record of my grandfather, Christian Neuenschwander. This task was started in 1929 by my cousin, Daniel Neuenschwander, but before he even finished compiling grandpa's children he was killed in a street car accident in Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 1931.

So in the spring of 1957, I gathered together what I could of his record, and completed it down to date.

1164485

I am only sorry we were unable to find how old he was when he with his parents migrated to America, the cause for migration, and how they came to locate at Berne, Ind.

He was born in the vicinity of Muri, a little town near Zurich, Switzerland. His father's name was Michael Neuenschwander. An unofficial record we have as follows: There were five sons and three daughters, they all lived within a radius of 50 miles of Fort Wayne, Indiana, namely,

Christian, Vera Cruz, Indiana

John, Vera Cruz, Indiana

Ulrich, Vera Cruz, Indiana

Isaac, Fort Wayne, Indiana

Michael, Jr., Berne, Indiana

Barbara Sowers, Columbia City, Indiana

Mattie Nussbaum, Berne, Indiana

Elizabeth (single)

We hope this record will be received in the same spirit of devotion which inspired the writer.

AN APOLOGY TO MY KINSFOLK

Greetings:

In compiling this family history my thoughts were to follow my grandfather, Christian Neuenschwander's family and his generations. I was surprised to find so little information available concerning our parents and grandparents and their families.

Grandfather's family consisted of fifteen children, seven boys and eight girls. One of the girls, Lydia, died under five years of age and the rest all married and reared families except Fanny who died at 25 years of age of child birth. These families are scattered over 24 states of the U.S. and some over seas, and most of us know little of each other. I might say here that one of the daughters, Mrs. Anna Neuenschwander Gilliom is still living at Bluffton, Indiana. She will be 96 years of age Oct. 7th.

I am satisfied that I have the heads of all these families and I believe an almost complete family record of each of grandpa Christian Neuenschwander's children.

I frankly acknowledge that this work is not perfect. There may be errors in dates mentioned, but I have tried to do the best under the existing circumstances. You will find a few dates and addresses missing which were not available to me.

The time covered by this family record is 146 years from 1812 to 1958. It covers 272 families, 1,030 individuals giving births, deaths, marriages and their addresses of seven generations.

I wish to express my thanks and gratitude to those who have given cooperation in gathering the dates, etc. to make this record possible. Without you I could not have done it. Any one wishing to use any part of this record for your own family has my consent.

CONCLUSION

It has been a pleasure to me to compile this family record which took me about 15 months. I admit the work required patience and perseverance, but it was also very interesting and fascinating, and somehow gave me a peculiar feeling that our generation links together the past and future generations which follow indefinitely, thus writing us all into one big family.

Finally—my sincere wish and prayer is, that the names of all those who appear on these pages shall also be found written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Rev. 21:27.

Albert Neuenschwander.
